

Job Description: Rector, Anglican Church of the Redeemer

The Anglican Church of the Redeemer in Jacksonville, Florida, seeks a passionate, collaborative, and visionary rector to lead us in fulfilling our mission to Know Christ, Grow Together, and Go Into the World. We are a vibrant, multigenerational church that values community, biblical teaching, Anglican liturgy, and outreach.

Key Responsibilities:

- Spiritual Leadership: Preach and teach biblically grounded sermons that challenge and inspire spiritual growth.
- Discipleship Development: Foster opportunities for discipleship across all ages, equipping members to grow in their faith and serve others.
- Worship Oversight: Lead and enhance worship services that balance Anglican tradition with accessible and meaningful liturgical practices, blending traditional and contemporary elements.
- Lay Leadership Empowerment: Develop systems and programs to train and equip lay leaders to take active roles in ministry and church growth.
- Community Engagement: Strengthen the church's sense of community through small groups, fellowship, and multigenerational interactions.
- Outreach and Mission: Guide the church in partnering with local organizations and caring for the "last, the lost, and the least" in tangible and impactful ways.

Qualifications:

- Ordained in the Anglican tradition and committed to its liturgical practices.
- A dynamic communicator with a deep love for Scripture and discipleship.
- Proven ability to lead collaboratively, with strong self-awareness and emotional intelligence.
- Experience in developing and growing systems to support sustainable ministry and lay leadership.
- Passion for community building, outreach, and fostering generosity in time, talent, and treasure.

Join us as we strive to grow deeper in our faith, broader in our outreach, and stronger in our community. Redeemer offers a full-time salary and benefits following the Diocesan guidelines.
